HACH LANGE GmbH - Customer Information: Chemkey® Total Ammonia Reagents

Dear valued customer,

this letter is to inform you that the products

9425200 Chemkey® Total Ammonia Reagents

are exempted from the hazard communication and do not require a Safety Data Sheet, because the products are defined as “article” according to Article 3 of Regulation (EC) 1907/2006 (REACH) and are not subjected to labelling pursuant to Article 1 of Regulation 1272 (CLP). In accordance with Article 31 of Regulation (EC) 1907/2006 (REACH), a safety data sheet does not need to be provided for articles.

The disposal has to be in accordance to your local regulations. We can recommend disposing the Chemkey® with the European Waste Codes “16 01 19 Plastics”. (Commission notice on technical guidance on the classification of waste (2018/C 124/01))

Please contact the HACH Product Environmental Compliance at: SDS@hach.com if you have further questions.

Sincerely yours,

HACH LANGE GmbH
